INDIAN VALLEY – An afternoon ATV accident on Monday sent one person to the hospital with major injuries. The California Highway Patrol incident logs reported the accident was called in at 2:09 p.m. in the Indian Valley/Wilbur Springs area.

The ATV rider was transported by private vehicle to the Cal Fire station at Wilbur Springs, where he was life-flighted to the hospital.

A sheriff's deputy was at the scene and gave a statement on the accident, according to the logs.

Further details about the rider's name, the cause of the accident, the exact extent of his injuries and which hospital he was taken to was not immediately available from CHP.
