

Major injuries in late Friday crash

Contributed by Elizabeth Larson
Saturday, 06 October 2007

GLENHAVEN – A crash on Highway 20 near Glenhaven late Friday resulted in major injuries.

The California Highway Patrol incident logs reported that the accident took place around 9:28 p.m. on westbound Highway 20 at Cora Drive.

The CHP did not stipulate how many vehicles were involved.

However, they did report that emergency personnel transported one person by helicopter to Santa Rosa.

A blood test was conducted and no alcohol was found in the person's system, the CHP reported.

No other information was available Saturday night.

E-mail Elizabeth Larson at el Larson@lakeconews.com.

{mos_sb_discuss:2}