

Friday crash victim's identity released

Contributed by Elizabeth Larson
Thursday, 21 February 2008

CLEARLAKE – Officials have identified a woman who died as the result of a Friday auto collision. The California Highway Patrol reported Wednesday the crash victim was 76-year-old Colleen Infeld of Clearlake. Infeld died Friday following a head-on collision along Highway 29 north of Hofacker Lane between Lower Lake and Hidden Valley, as Lake County News reported.

CHP reported Infeld was driving southbound on Highway 29 shortly before 10 a.m. when her 2004 Ford Focus crossed into the northbound lane.

She collided head-on with a 2005 Chevy Impala driven by an 85-year-old Clearlake Oaks man, who CHP did not identify. The man was taken to Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital by air ambulance.

E-mail Elizabeth Larson at el Larson@lakeconews.com.

{mos_sb_discuss:2}