LAKE COUNTY – After a long journey to Hollywood and some time spent working on new music, Faded At Four is once again ready to return back to the local Lake County music scene.

Fans can hear Faded At Four at Carlos and Vinny's in Lakeport on June 21 for a $10 cover charge. Faded At Four will also be selling T-shirts with their new, updated logo the night of the show.

Tickets are limited for this event and sure to sell out fast. Contact Faded At Four at events@fadedatfour.com or stop by Carlos and Vinny's in Lakeport to purchase tickets.

Faded At Four's past accomplishments were to win the Uber grand prize in Ukiah's first annual Bandslam Competition and also opened for Kid Rock at Konocti Harbor Resort and Spa.

The band also was a regional finalist in the Bodog Battle of the Bands, finishing third out of more than 4,500 bands in the nation in the online fan votes.

More information about this band can be found at www.fadedatfour.com.
