LAKEPORT – The Lakeport City Council's first regular meeting of December will be a brief one, with only a few items on the agenda.

The meeting will begin at 6 p.m. at Lakeport City Hall, 225 Park St.

On the short agenda is the consent calendar, which includes approval of the warrant register dated Dec. 2; council minutes from the Nov. 18 meeting; an agreement between the city and William Turner for provision of housing program inspector services; and consideration of an amendment to the Housing Program Policies and Guidelines.

The council also will hold a closed session for property negotiations relating to 1473 Martin St.

At the end of Tuesday's meeting, the council will adjourn to the following day – Wednesday, Dec. 3 – for a review of the city's draft general plan and draft environmental impact report.
